Generic Terms & Conditions

These Generic Terms & Conditions (applicable to every account/product/service (including banking & financing facilities) opened with or provided by HSBC Amanah) should be read together with the Specific Terms & Conditions of the relevant account/product/service opened with or provided by HSBC Amanah and HSBC Amanah's Online and Mobile Banking Terms and Conditions as may be amended from time to time.

General

HSBC Amanah will comply with regulatory duties to our customers at all times when providing, servicing and withdrawing products, exiting client relationships, supporting customers, managing customer investments, administering custody assets/client monies and handling complaints. We will strive to achieve fair outcomes for our customers in all our dealings with our customers.

Account-i Statements

- 1.(i) Where account statements are applicable, they are sent monthly or, at such other intervals as instructed by the Customer or as stated in the applicable Specific Terms & Conditions or account-related documentation.

The Customer agrees to promptly check and reconcile the contents of each account statement and transaction record from the Bank with the Customer's own records to see if there are any errors, omissions, discrepancies or irregularities (including any errors arising from fraudulent or unauthorized transaction) (collectively "Irregularities").

The Customer shall notify the Bank of any Irregularities, as soon as practicable and in any case within 60 days from the account statement date. If notice is received by the Bank after this time period, the Bank shall not be responsible for any Loss resulting from the delay by the Customer in providing such notice.

- (ii) The Customer agrees that if the Customer did not register: (a) for email statements, or provide the Bank with any e-mail address; and/or (b) did not register of Online Banking e- statements, or as a user for Online Banking, the account statement would be sent via paper statement in hard copy to the last known address in the Bank's record and a fee (as stated in the Bank's Tariff and Charges which can be viewed at <https://www.hsbcamanah.com.my/content/dam/hsbc/hbms/documents/tariffs-and-charges.pdf>) would be charged for each account statement issued.

Consolidation & Set-Off

2. If the Customer owes any monies (in the Customer's sole capacity or jointly with another) that are due and payable to the Bank ("Outstanding Amount") and the Customer has failed to settle the Outstanding Amount after the Bank's request, the Customer agrees that the Bank shall have the right to protect its interest to do the following:

- (i) consolidate the credit balances (including in multiple currencies) in all the Customer's accounts with the Bank;
- (ii) put a hold on such amount of the credit balances which the Bank estimates in good faith to be sufficient (including any accruing profit or other charges);
- (iii) at the end of 7 days' prior notice to the Customer, apply such credit balances towards the Outstanding Amount; and
- (iv) the remaining credit balances, if any, shall be held on substantially the same terms as before the consolidation or on such other terms as the Bank considers reasonably appropriate in the circumstances.

The Bank's right and authorisation under this Clause shall not be affected by the Customer's death, bankruptcy, insolvency, composition with other creditors or any legal proceedings against the Customer.

Customer's Details and Obligations

- 3.(i) The Customer agrees to promptly notify the Bank in writing of any changes in the Customer's address, telephone, mobile phone and/or e-mail address, and for a company, limited liability partnership or conventional partnership including any changes in the Customer's name and/or constitution as well, in writing or via channels made available by the Bank. Pending receipt of such notice, the Bank shall send all communications to the latest address, e-mail address and/or number stated in the Bank's records.
- (ii) The Customer agrees that the Customer's account shall not be used for any other purpose except for personal use and for Fusion Customers, for its own business use only.
- (iii) Any change in identification of the Customer (and of the Child for minor accounts) shall be notified to the Bank with supporting documents.

Joint Accounts

4. For an account opened and maintained in more than one name:
 - (i) each Customer's liabilities and obligations is joint and several and notice to one Customer shall be taken as notice to all;
 - (ii) words indicating singular in these Generic Terms & Conditions shall be read to include plural and vice versa, and reference to "Customer's signature" shall be read to include each Customer's signature;
 - (iii) a Customer shall remain bound by these Generic Terms & Conditions even if the other Customer(s) is(are) in fact not bound;
 - (iv) the Bank has the right to deal with each Customer separately on any matter including discharging any liabilities to any extent without affecting the liabilities of the other Customer(s);
 - (v) all Customers are jointly and severally liable for the use of any personal identification number (PIN), security device/ Mobile Secure Key or Card even if it was applied for or used by only one of the Customers;
 - (vi) in case of death of any of the Customers, the Bank shall hold the credit balances in the account to the sole order of the survivor(s) subject to the Bank's prior rights or claims, and payment to the survivor(s) is a complete discharge to the Bank;
 - (vii) if any Customer withdraws his mandate for the other Customer(s) to operate the joint account, the Bank shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Customers due to putting a hold on the joint account pending receipt of joint written instructions from all the holders of the joint account; and
 - (viii) the operation or closure of the joint account shall be based on the instruction or authorisation given by any one Customer which shall bind all Customers, and amounts payable to or collected for any one Customer may be credited to the joint account.

Corporate/Limited Liability Partnership/Conventional Partnership Accounts

5. Where the Customer is a company or a limited liability partnership, the mandate given for opening the first account shall apply to subsequently opened account(s) of the same type unless a separate mandate is given for such subsequent account(s).

Where the Customer is a conventional partnership or other unincorporated body of persons, the liability of all partners or all office-bearers shall be joint and several, and the mandate given shall remain in force until revoked in writing even if there is any change in the name of the partnership or in the constitution of the partnership by death, bankruptcy, retirement, resignation or admission of new partner(s). The Bank has the right to treat the surviving or remaining partner(s) as having full power to carry on business and to deal with the partnership assets as if there had been no change in the partnership.

For the avoidance of doubt, in these Generic Terms & Conditions: -

- "Limited liability partnership" means a limited liability partnership that is registered under the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2012.
- "Conventional partnership" means and includes a partnership that is registered under the Registration of Businesses Act, 1956 (or where the partnership is based in Sabah or Sarawak, one that is registered under the relevant laws applicable in Sabah or Sarawak, as the case may be), and a partnership that is established by two or more persons for the purposes of carrying on any professional practice but is not registered under the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2012.

Specimen Signature of Authorised Signatory(ies)

6. The Customer(s) shall give the Bank their names and specimen signature(s) of all the authorised signatory(ies) on the Bank's specimen signature cards. In case of changes to the specimen signature(s) and/or authorised signatory(ies), the Customer agrees to promptly notify the Bank in writing. For Fusion Customers, the Customer agrees to promptly notify the Bank in writing by giving a certified true copy of the relevant resolution. The Customer acknowledges that such changes shall take effect after the Bank confirms in writing that its records have been updated.

The Customer agrees that the Bank has the right to reject cheques, instructions and communications with signature(s) which do not match the specimen signature(s) on record, but that the Bank also has the right to act on the same if the Bank has reasonable grounds to believe that it did in fact come from the Customer.

Amendment of Terms & Conditions

- 7.1 Where availability of new products or services or operational, administrative or regulatory changes are required to be notified to the Customer, the Generic Terms & Conditions, the Specific Terms & Conditions and any of the Bank's products or services (including its features or limits) may be changed or added to by way reasonable prior notice to the Customer to be given on the Bank's internet website and additionally in any of the following manner:

- (i) notice in the account statement;
- (ii) notice at automated teller machines (ATM), electronic funds transfer at point of sale (EFTPOS) terminals or other electronic terminals;
- (iii) notice at any of the Bank's branches;
- (iv) sending a notice to the Customer's latest physical address maintained in the Bank's record;
- (v) notice via emails or electronic messages which shall be taken to have been received at the time of transmission; or
- (vi) any other mode the Bank may reasonably consider as suitable.

- 7.2 Changes or additions which:

- (i) impose or increase fees or charges;
 - (ii) increase the Customer's liability;
 - (iii) adjust ATM card transaction limits for electronic fund transfers via ATM, automated facilities and/or telegraphic transfers; or
 - (iv) reduce the Customer's rights,
- shall take effect after 21 days' prior written notice to the Customer.

- 7.3 The Customer shall be taken to have accepted the change(s) or addition(s) unless the Customer objects or otherwise takes positive action to close the account or terminate the service before the changes becomes effective. The Customer remains liable for all transactions before the closure or termination.

Financial Crime Risk Management Activity

8. The terms in this Clause shall continue to apply even after the Bank ceases to provide any accounts, products and/or services to the Customer. (Please refer to Clause 42 for the definitions applicable to this Clause.)
- (i) The Customer acknowledges that the holding of accounts and use of products and/or services provided by the Bank are subject to the laws of Malaysia and other relevant jurisdictions, and to the supervisory authority of Bank Negara Malaysia and other applicable Authorities in Malaysia and other relevant jurisdictions.
 - (ii) The Bank and members of the HSBC Group are required, and may take any action to meet Compliance Obligations relating to or in connection with the detection, investigation and prevention of Financial Crime ("Financial Crime Risk Management Activity"). Such action may include, but is not limited to: (1) screening, intercepting and investigating any instruction, communication, drawdown request, application for any accounts, products and/or services, or any payment sent to or by the Customer, or on the Customer's behalf,

- (2) investigating the source of or intended recipient of funds (3) combining Customer Information with other related information in the possession of the HSBC Group, and/or (4) making further enquiries as to the status of a person or entity, whether they are subject to a sanctions regime, or confirming the Customer's identity and status.
- (iii) Exceptionally, such Financial Crime Risk Management Activity may lead to the Bank delaying, blocking or refusing the making or clearing of any payment, the processing of the customer instructions or application for any accounts, products and/or services or the provision of all or part of any accounts, products and/or services. To the extent permissible by law, neither the Bank nor any member of the HSBC Group shall be liable to the Customer or any third party for any loss (however it arose) that was suffered or incurred by the Customer or a third party, caused in whole or in part in connection with the undertaking of such Financial Crime Risk Management Activity.
- (iv) In certain circumstances, such Financial Crime Risk Management Activity may prevent or cause a delay in the processing of certain information. Therefore, neither the Bank nor any member of the HSBC Group warrants that any information on the Bank's systems relating to any payment messages or other information and communications which are the subject of any action taken pursuant to such Financial Crime Risk Management Activity is accurate, current or up-to-date at the time it is accessed, whilst such action is being taken.
- (v) Where the Bank or a member of the HSBC Group has suspicions regarding Financial Crime or an associated risk, the Bank may:
- be unable to provide new, or continue to provide all or part of, the accounts, products and/or services to the Customer and reserve the right to terminate the banking relationship with the Customer;
 - take actions necessary for the Bank or a member of the HSBC Group to meet the Compliance Obligations; and/or
 - close the Customer's account(s).

Suspension/Closure of Account

9. The Customer acknowledges that the Bank has a discretion:
- (i) not to carry out any instructions or suspend the use of the account by giving notice to Customer:
- where the Bank doubts the authenticity of the instruction or the account and in good faith considers it appropriate to do so; or
 - in the event of any dispute between the joint account holders, authorised signatories (partners (whether in respect of a conventional partnership or a limited liability partnership) or directors of a company or the Bank receives conflicting instruction or authorised signatories if the Customer repeatedly fails to pay amounts due to the Bank; or
 - if the Customer fails to provide sufficient information in relation to any payment instructions (including but not limited to purpose of payment); or
 - If the Customer fails to provide promptly Customer Information that the Bank reasonably requests for tax compliance; or
 - There are changes to the Bank's business, operation, technology or facilities that affect the Services the Bank offer; or
 - There are changes in law or regulations or new industry guidelines or codes of practices that affect the services the Bank offers; or
 - In exercising the Bank's rights under Clauses 8 (Financial Crime Risk Management Activity), clause 10 (iv) (Collection, Processing and Sharing of Customer Information) and clause 13 (Know Your Customer).
- (ii) The Customer also acknowledges that the Bank has the discretion to close an account by giving Customer 2 weeks' written notice at the Customer's address or email address maintained in the Bank's records.
- (iii) Notice can be given via:
- personal delivery which shall be taken to have been received at the time of delivery; or

- (b) ordinary/registered post (either AR or non-AR registered) or courier which shall be taken to have been received on the 3rd day after posting or the 3rd day after dispatch to the courier service provider, as the case may be, even though the Bank is not in receipt of the signed AR card or the Customer's acknowledgement of receipt; or
- (c) email which shall be taken to have been received at the time of transmission.
- (iv) The Customer acknowledges that there will be instances where the Bank is not able to provide its reasons for exercising its discretion to suspend or close the account due to legal and/or regulatory restrictions.
- (v) Unless an account is charged to the Bank, the Customer may at any time close an account by notice in writing to the Bank.

Collection, Processing and Sharing of Customer Information

10. The terms in this Clause shall continue to apply even after the Bank ceases to provide any accounts, products and/or Services to the Customer. (Please refer to Clause 42 for the definitions applicable to this Clause.)
- (i) Customer Information will be processed, transferred and disclosed by the Bank and/or members of the HSBC Group in connection with the following purposes (the "Purposes"), as stated in the Notice to Customers relating to the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 ("PDPA Notice") available at www.hsbcamanah.com.my.
 - (ii) By using any of the accounts, products and/or Services provided by the Bank, the Customer agrees that the Bank may, as necessary and appropriate for the Purposes, process, transfer and disclose any Customer Information to the recipients (the "Recipients") as set out in the PDPA Notice (who may also subsequently process, transfer and disclose such Customer Information for the Purposes) subject at all times to any laws (including regulations, standards, industry code of practice, guidelines, obligations, and/or directives from any regulatory authorities) applicable to the financial institution.
 - (iii) The Customer agrees to inform the Bank promptly, and in any event, within 30 days in writing if there are any changes to Customer Information supplied to the Bank from time to time, and to respond promptly to any request from the Bank.
 - (iv) Where:
 - a) the Customer fails to provide promptly Customer Information that the Bank reasonably requested; or
 - b) the Customer withholds or withdraws any consents that the Bank may need to process, transfer or disclose Customer Information for the Purposes (except for purposes connected with marketing or promoting products and Services to the Customer); or
 - c) the Bank or a member of the HSBC Group has suspicions regarding Financial Crime or an associated risk; the Bank may:
 - 1) be unable to provide new, or continue to provide all or part of, the accounts, products and/or Services to the Customer and reserve the right to terminate the banking relationship with the Customer;
 - 2) take actions necessary for the Bank or a member of the HSBC Group to meet the Compliance Obligations; and/or
 - 3) close the Customer's account(s).

Tape Recording

11. The Bank may choose (but is not obliged) to record the Customer's verbal instructions and/or communication with the Bank. Such recordings, being the sole property of the Bank, shall be conclusively binding on the Customer and the Bank reserves the right to destroy the recordings after such period of time it sees fit.

Document Management

12. The Customer acknowledges that the Bank is not obliged to provide copies of any cheques, cashier's orders, bank drafts, receipts, confirmations, advices, vouchers, documents, recordings or other items (collectively, "Documents") relating to any type of account:
- (i) after the Bank has completed the relevant transaction;
 - (ii) after microfilming, scanning or storing in whatever medium; or
 - (iii) after the account has been closed by the Customer or by the Bank.

The Customer agrees that the Bank shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Customer due to the unavailability of the Documents which have been dealt with by the Bank according to the Bank's document retention policy.

“Know Your Customer”

13. (i) The Customer acknowledges that the Bank is required to carry out a due diligence to identify and to find out the background of its customer. The Customer agrees to sign such declarations, do such acts and/or provide such documents requested by the Bank for this purpose within the required time period, and that not doing so may result in the Bank suspending, closing or limiting the usage of the account including but not limited to disallowing any transfer of funds to third parties. If the account is to be closed, the Bank reserves the right to return the funds in the account to the source from where it came.
- (ii) If the Customer or a shareholder (whether direct or indirect, legal or beneficial) of the Customer is a company incorporated in a country that permits issuance of bearer shares, the Customer confirms and warrants that neither it nor such shareholder has issued any bearer shares and further undertakes that neither it nor such shareholder will issue or convert any of its shares or such shareholder's shares (as the case may be) to bearer form without the prior written consent of the Bank, failing which the Bank reserves the right to terminate the banking relationship with the Customer.

Tax Compliance

14. The terms in this Clause shall continue to apply even after the Bank ceases to provide any accounts, products and/or services to the Customer. (Please refer to Clause 42 for the definitions applicable to this Clause.)
- (i) Certain countries may have tax legislation with extra-territorial effect regardless of the Customer's or Connected Person's place of domicile, residence, citizenship or incorporation. Neither the Bank nor any member of the HSBC Group provides tax advice. The Customer is advised to seek independent legal and/or tax advice. Neither the Bank nor any member of the HSBC Group has responsibility in respect of the Customer's tax obligations in any jurisdiction which they may arise including any that may relate specifically to the opening and use of accounts, products and/or services provided by the Bank and/or members of the HSBC Group.
- (ii) The Customer acknowledges that the Customer is solely responsible for understanding and complying with the Customer's tax obligations (including but not limited to, tax payment or filing of returns or other required documentation relating to the payment of all relevant taxes) in all jurisdictions in which those obligations arise and relating to the opening and use of accounts, products and/or services provided by the Bank and/or members of the HSBC Group. The Customer confirms and warrants that each Connected Person acting in their capacity as a Connected Person (and not in their personal capacity) also makes the same acknowledgement in their own regard.
- (iii) The Customer agrees to inform the Bank promptly, and in any event, within 30 days in writing if there are any changes to Customer Information supplied to the Bank from time to time, and to respond promptly to any request from the Bank.
- (iv) Where the Customer fails to provide promptly Customer Information that the Bank reasonably requested, the Bank may:
- (a) be unable to provide new, or continue to provide all or part of, the accounts, products and/or services to the Customer and reserve the right to terminate the banking relationship with the Customer;
 - (b) take actions necessary for the Bank or a member of the HSBC Group to meet the Compliance Obligations (such as that described in paragraph (v) below); and/or
 - (c) close the Customer's account(s).
- (v) The Customer acknowledges that failure to supply promptly, the Customer's or a Connected Person's Tax Information and accompanying statements, waivers and consents, as may be requested, may result in the Bank making its own judgment with respect to the Customer's status, including whether the Customer is reportable to a Tax Authority, and may require the Bank or other persons to withhold amounts as may be legally required by any Tax Authority and paying such amounts to the appropriate Tax Authority.

Breach of Terms & Conditions

15. If the Customer does not comply with these Generic Terms & Conditions, the applicable Specific Terms & Conditions or account-related documentation, the Bank shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Customer.

Customer Complaints

16. The Customer accepts that the complaints procedure is as follows:
- (i) Complete and submit a Complaints Form or send a letter providing adequate details to the Bank.
 - (ii) The Bank will carry out an investigation into the complaint.

- (iii) The Bank will notify the Customer of the outcome of the investigation.
- (iv) If the Customer is not satisfied with the findings of the investigation, the Customer may appeal to the Manager, Customer Experience Team and/or refer the complaint to the Ombudsman for Financial Services, Securities Industry Dispute Resolution Center or Bank Negara Malaysia (as applicable).

The pre-authorisation amount will be released, and actual transaction amount will be debited from the designated deposit account within 3 working days after the transaction date. The block shall be held for T+3 working days with the "T" being the transaction day;
 - (b) for transactions performed outside of Malaysia, the actual transaction amount will be converted to MYR and debited from the designated deposit account within 14 days after the transaction date. The block shall be held for the T+14 working days with "T" being the transaction day.
 - (g) for non AFD transactions, the block shall be held until the transaction is finalized and the final amount debited from the account;
 - (h) the Bank is not liable for any act or omission of any merchant establishment including any refusal to honour the debit card-i, or any defect or deficiency in any goods or services supplied to the Customer by such merchant;
 - (i) the Customer shall resolve all complaints, claims and disputes against the merchants directly and the Customer agrees not to involve the Bank in any such claims, dispute or legal proceedings; and
 - (j) the Bank shall not be liable for any payment remitted to the merchant notwithstanding any claims and/or disputes that the Customer may have against the merchant.
 - (k) For toll-related transactions, CNP function is automatically and permanently enabled for toll-related transactions on your debit card-i and there is no option to be disabled. When you tap your card at the toll payment terminal, the toll fares will be directly deducted from the designated deposit account-i linked to your debit card-i. You should ensure that there are sufficient funds in your account before making toll payments. The Bank reserves the right to debit your designated deposit account-i directly without prior notice for toll payment if the cardholder manages to pass through the toll successfully but the toll payment is not successfully charged on the same day due to insufficient funds in the designated deposit account-i, system outages, technical issues and/or whatsoever reasons, and this may result in a discrepancy between the toll charge date and time versus the actual transaction date and time.
- (iv) Visa - The Customer agrees that withdrawal and purchase transactions carried out in a currency other than MYR will be debited to the account after conversion to MYR at the exchange rate determined by Visa International, on the date of conversion in addition to a foreign currency conversion fee of 1%. This is not applicable to transactions performed on the Everyday Global Debit Card-i and debited from the supported foreign currency credit balances. If there are insufficient credit balances in the supported foreign currency account or the transaction is performed in a non-supported foreign currency, the funds will be debited from the MYR account balances at the exchange rate determined by Visa International or the Bank, and a 1% conversion fee will be charged. The transaction will be declined if there is insufficient fund in the MYR credit balances.
- MyDebit- The Customer agrees that purchase transactions carried out in a currency other than MYR will be debited to the MYR account after conversion to MYR at the exchange rate determined by PayNet, on the date of conversion. No other fees will be charged by PayNet. The transaction will be declined if there is insufficient fund in the MYR credit balances.
- (v) The Customer shall not use or attempt to use the debit card-i unless there are sufficient funds in the account. If the customer's account is overdrawn (only applicable for current account) and there is no overdraft facility, the customer must, upon the bank's demand, repay the overdrawn amount plus interest as specified in the terms and conditions governing the account.
 - (vi) The bank reserves the right of set-off, which may involve combining, consolidating, setting off, or transferring funds credited to the Customer's accounts to settle any amounts due or owing by the Customer to the Bank. This right of set-off may be applied between accounts even if they are in different currencies. In such cases, the Bank may perform the set-off with the necessary currency conversion at the exchange rates at the Bank's discretion.
 - (vii) (a) In the situation of a card-present unauthorized transaction which require PIN or Biometric Credentials verification, the Customer shall not be liable for the disputed transaction, unless the Customer is proven to have:
 - 1) acted fraudulently.
 - 2) delayed in notifying the Bank as soon as reasonably practicable after having discovered the loss or unauthorized use of the Customer's debit card-i;
 - 3) voluntarily disclosed Customer's PIN to another person;

- 4) recorded the PIN or Biometric Credentials on Customer's debit card-i, or on anything kept in close proximity with the debit card-i, which could be lost or stolen together with the debit card-i;
- (b) In the situation of a card-present unauthorized transaction which require signature verification or the use of a contactless card, the Customer shall not be liable for the disputed transaction, unless the Customer is proven to have:
 - 1) acted fraudulently;
 - 2) delayed in notifying the Bank as soon as reasonably practicable after having discovered the loss or unauthorized use of the Customer's debit card-i;
 - 3) left the debit card-i or an item containing the debit card-i unattended, in places visible and accessible to others, except at the Customer's place of residence. However, the Customer is expected to exercise due care in safeguarding the debit card-i even at the Customer's place of residence; or
 - 4) voluntarily allowed another person to use the Customer's debit card-i.
- (c) To facilitate the Bank investigating into any report of lost or stolen debit card-i, the Bank will require the assistance of the Customer to perform the following:
 - 1) notwithstanding that the Customer may have lodged a verbal report, the Bank will require the Customer to complete a written report, which may include the completion of questionnaire; and
 - 2) to provide the Bank with a copy of a police report filed in relation to the lost or theft of the debit card-i.
- (viii) The Customer also acknowledges that ATM, POS terminals and other automated facilities are currently not configured for use by the print handicapped or visually impaired persons and such Customer will not hold the Bank liable for any limitation of services arising from the use of the debit card-i at the ATM, POS terminals or other automated facilities.

Cheque & Cash Deposits

20. (i) The Customer agrees to follow the prescribed procedures correctly when using the automated facilities provided by the Bank for cheque and cash deposits. The Customer agrees that all uncrossed cheques should be crossed by drawing 2 parallel diagonal lines across the top left hand corner of the cheque before depositing to prevent fraudulent endorsement or changes to be made to the cheque.
- (ii) The Customer acknowledges that they will check all debit or credit transactions after using the automated facilities and the Bank shall not be responsible for any loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by mechanical failure or other cause which is beyond the Bank's control.
- (iii) The Customer acknowledges that cheque made through the automated facilities provided by the Bank will be processed in accordance with the Bank's cut-off times as specified at the point of deposit and shall be taken to have been made only when verified, duly cleared and entered into the Bank's records.
- (iv) The Customer acknowledges that the deposited amount on the video screen of the automated facilities or advice slip may be pending verification and/or clearance and hence will not be treated as received for value until the amount deposited is entered into the Bank's records.
- (v) The Customer also acknowledges that cheque made through the automated facilities provided by the Bank will be processed in accordance with the Bank's cut-off times as specified on the video screen of the facility and if not specified on the facility, at the Express Banking lobby or banking hall of the Bank.
- (vi) The Bank reserves the right to deduct from your account the full value of any notes deposited which are subsequently verified as fake.
- (vii) The Customer agrees to provide relevant information/supporting documents required, failing which, the Bank has the right to reject the cash deposit.

Foreign Currency Cheques

21. (i) The Customer acknowledges that:
 - (a) the Bank may be subject to foreign laws when collecting foreign currency cheques on behalf of the Customer from a paying bank outside Malaysia ("foreign collection"); and
 - (b) the foreign laws may allow the paying bank to demand refund from the Bank within 6 years after the cheque has cleared.
- (ii) The Customer agrees:
 - (a) that the Bank reserves the right to debit the Customer's account for the refund;
 - (b) that the Bank shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Customer; and

- (c) to fully reimburse the Bank for all fees, costs and expenses incurred in the course of providing the service including arising from the Bank's use of and liaison with intermediaries and third parties as the Customer's agent.
- (iii) The Customer further acknowledges and agrees:
 - (a) that the Bank may in its discretion refuse to accept for collection or purchase any foreign currency cheque, bill or other instrument notwithstanding that there is no irregularity or alteration on such foreign currency cheque, bill or other instrument or that an alteration has been countersigned by the Customer as the Bank may not be able to provide clearing assistance on the same;
 - (b) that the Bank is not obliged to give its reasons for exercising its discretion to refuse to accept for collection or purchase any foreign currency cheque, bill or other instrument; and
 - (c) that the Bank shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Customer.

Inward Remittances

22. (i) The Bank reserves the right:

- (a) to debit the Customer's account with the same amount credited earlier, when the relevant cheque, instrument, payment order or instruction is subsequently returned unpaid or cannot be presented or cleared due to loss or destruction or misplaced in the process of presenting or, if the amount was wrongly credited in the first place, and the Bank shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Customer;
- (b) to amend under advice, the pay-in-slip due to errors, wrong addition, missing items or third party account payee cheques collected in error;
- (c) to stop any inward remittance in favour of the Customer if the originator's information received by the Bank is incomplete or if the originator does not furnish the Bank with the purpose of the remittance, and the Bank shall not be liable to the Customer for the delay or rejection of the inward remittance;
- (d) to reverse any payments received through Interbank GIRO from a resident or external account for credit to the Customer's external account with the Bank, if the originator does not furnish the Bank with the purpose of the payments, or if the amount is more than RM10,000 per day and/or if it is from a non-permitted source under BNM Foreign Exchange Policy.

(ii) The Customer agrees:

- (a) that the Bank shall not be liable to the Customer for any loss, error, omission or delay by the correspondent, clearing or intermediary bank which may take place in the transfer or transmission of inward remittances into the Customer's Bank account unless caused by the Bank's negligence or default; and
- (b) that the Bank can only credit the funds into the Customer's account upon receipt of the same from the correspondent, clearing or intermediary bank.

Outward Remittances

23. (i) The Customer acknowledges that:

- (a) all applications for outward remittances (e.g. telegraphic transfers, global money transfers, demand drafts, cashier's orders, RENTAS, Interbank GIRO) are subject to the Bank's daily cut-off times;
- (b) applications for same day value are also subject to cut-off times based on the geographical location of the recipient;
- (c) applications for outward remittances received after the relevant cut-off time will only be processed on the next banking day; and
- (d) for remittances dependent on other institutions, the Bank will process the application according to the Bank's daily cut-off times and forward the same to the other institution for their processing and the Bank shall not be liable to the Customer for any delay and/or error in processing on the part of the other institution.

(ii) The Customer agrees that:

- (a) the application for telegraphic transfers or demand drafts will be carried out by the Bank in the same currency in which the Customer pays the Bank, unless the Customer specifically instructs the Bank in writing differently;
- (b) unless the rate of exchange is confirmed with the Bank's dealer for the transaction, if the Bank is unable to give a firm quotation for the rate of exchange, the Bank shall carry out the remittance based on a provisional rate and when the actual rate is known, any difference between the provisional rate and the actual rate shall be debited or credited to the relevant Customer's account; and
- (c) all charges for remittances are to be debited to the relevant Customer's account.

- (iii) The Bank reserves the right to draw the telegraphic transfer or the demand draft on a different bank branch or location from that specified by the Customer if the Bank's operational circumstances require it.
- (iv) The Customer must ensure that the recipient bank and beneficiary details are accurate and complete in the application form.
- (v) The Customer acknowledges that transfer of funds from a credit card-i account to any third party account through Interbank GIRO is treated as a cash advance and the relevant Cardholder Agreement applies.
- (vi) The Customer agrees that the Bank shall not be liable to the Customer:
 - (a) for any delays or rejection by the receiving or intermediary parties which may take place in the transfer, transmission and/or application of funds; or
 - (b) delays or rejection of telegraphic transfers (arising from inaccurate or incomplete payment details provided by the Customer), for any error, omission or mutilation which may take place in the transmission of the message (literally or in cipher) or for its misinterpretation by the receiving or intermediary party when received;
 - (c) losses arising from any of above.
- (vii) The Customer acknowledges that crediting of funds transfer through Interbank GIRO shall be identified based on the account number provided. The Customer may also provide additional identification to effect the crediting and shall be limited to the identification fields accepted in the Interbank GIRO payment format.

Carrying Out Payment/Remittance Instructions

24. (i) The Bank reserves the right to carry out the Customer's payment or remittance instructions by any method the Bank sees fit in spite of any specific instructions from the Customer. The Customer acknowledges that any request for cancellation of a payment or remittance instruction must be made in writing and once the remittance instruction has been issued, the Bank has the discretion whether or not to cancel the same. Any cancellation will be subject to the Bank's right to debit the Customer's account for all charges and any foreign exchange losses arising from the cancellation.
- (ii) If the Customer's payment or remittance instructions need to be carried out via a payment or clearing system operated by a third party, the Customer agrees that the Bank may use any correspondent, agent, sub-agent, agency or any other financial institution (collectively, "Intermediary"), and the Customer consents to the Bank disclosing all necessary information to the same. The Customer acknowledges that such payment or remittance less any applicable charges, shall be credited to the beneficiary's account based solely on the account number given by the Customer.
- (iii) The Customer agrees that the Bank or relevant Intermediary shall not be liable for any failures, delays, errors, omissions, interruptions, misinterpretation or any other outcome due to the payment or remittance instructions being sent or received through whatever channels of communication where not caused by the Bank or relevant intermediary.
- (iv) The Customer consents to the Bank disclosing the Customer's name and account number in the transaction details sent to the recipient financial institution and/or the payee.

Carrying Out Standing/Periodic Instructions

25. (i) The Customer agrees to notify the Bank in writing or via channels made available by the Bank, of any changes or amendments to the:
- (a) payment amount or payment limit;
 - (b) method of payment; and/or
 - (c) periodicity of payment;
- for standing or periodic payment instructions and subject to Clause 27 below, the Customer acknowledges that such changes or amendments shall take effect after 1 week from the Bank's receipt of such notice.
- (ii) The Customer agrees that the Bank may terminate the standing or periodic payment instructions with regard to future payments at any time, by written notice to the Customer where it is no longer able to execute the same or upon receipt of written confirmation from the payee named in the standing or periodic payment instructions that no further payment is required.
- (iii) The Customer acknowledges that the standing or periodic payment instructions will be carried out provided there are sufficient funds in the account and the Bank shall not be liable to the Customer for any missed payment due to insufficient funds.

- (iv) If the standing or periodic payment instructions are given for a payment limit, the Customer acknowledges that the Bank does not have any responsibility to verify the correctness of the amounts charged by the payee, and any disputes over the amounts are to be settled by the Customer directly with the payee.

Autopay Services

26. In these Generic Terms & Conditions:

“Autopay” means batch payments using a numerically based system. “Autopay In” means payments to the Customer using Autopay. “Autopay Out” means payments by the Customer using Autopay. “Autopay Services” means either Autopay In or Autopay Out.

- (i) The Customer acknowledges that Autopay Services is dependent on a numerically based system and therefore the Bank is not obliged to ensure that the account/payee names given by the Customer are identical or similar to the account names in the Bank’s records, and agrees that a transfer to or from an account having the same number as that given by the Customer shall be a good and complete discharge by the Bank of the Customer’s instructions.
- (ii) The Customer authorises the Bank to debit the Customer’s account with the charges for Autopay Services as stated in the Bank’s Tariff and Charges on the Bank’s website.
- (iii) The Customer acknowledges that:
- (a) if a payment due date falls on a holiday, entries will be passed on the banking day prior to the holiday;
 - (b) if there is insufficient funds in the Customer’s account on any occasion under Autopay Out, it will cause the Customer’s instructions to be automatically cancelled;
 - (c) Autopay Services may be terminated by the Bank at any time by giving 7 days’ prior written notice to the Customer.
- (iv) The Customer acknowledges that the Bank is not liable for any loss or delay which may take place in the transfer, transmission, input and/or application of funds outside of the Bank’s control.
- (v) The Customer agrees to reimburse the Bank for any actions, proceedings, claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses which the Bank may incur as a result of carrying out the Customer’s instructions under Autopay Services.

Priority of Payment

27. The Customer agrees that the Bank has discretion to determine the order of priority of payment from the funds of the Customer, of any cheque drawn on the Customer’s account or any standing or third party payment instructions from the Customer on a first come first out basis.

Customer’s Instructions

28. The Customer acknowledges that the Customer’s instructions may be carried out even though:

- (i) they conflict with or are inconsistent with other instructions or mandates given by the Customer to the Bank; and/or
- (ii) account(s) which are for the time being in credit or overdrawn, may become or remain overdrawn as a result.

In any of the above cases, the Customer shall be liable for any resulting advance or financing facilities created subject to profit at the rate determined by the Bank, and Clause 2 above shall apply. The Customer shall ensure that there are sufficient funds in the Customer’s account or prearranged financing to meet all payment instructions.

All instructions by a Customer shall remain effective for the protection of the Bank for payments made or instructions carried out in good faith in spite of death, bankruptcy or winding-up or the revocation of any such instructions by any means by the Customer, until written notice with documents evidencing such death, bankruptcy, winding-up or such revocation is received by the Bank.

Beyond Bank’s Control

29. The Customer shall not hold the Bank responsible for any loss or damage which the Customer may suffer arising from any service failure due to breakdown or malfunction of any computer, network or equipment not under the control of the Bank attempted or actual acts of terrorism, outbreak of epidemics, acts of God or any circumstances beyond the Bank’s control.

Telecommunications

30. (i) At the request of the Customer, the Bank is authorised to release information relating to the Customer’s account, exchange rates or profit rates (subject to fluctuation) at its discretion via telephone, or telex. Information or rates given via telephone are indicative and shall not be binding on the Bank unless subsequently confirmed by the Bank in writing;

- (ii) The Customer authorises the Bank to send any account information, updates and reminders pertaining to the Customer's account via short messaging service ("SMS") or multimedia messaging service ("MMS") to the Customer's mobile phone number according to Clause 3, including outstanding balance, available balance, financing limit (if any) and any other updates that the Bank may make available from time to time.
- (iii) The Customer acknowledges that all digital applications will receive notification on transactions, promotional materials and/or any other kinds of communication via any electronic channel (such as SMS, email, push notifications etc.) and that the Bank may from time to time deliver written notices by letter, press advertisements, or through such other means as the Bank deems necessary or appropriate.
- (iv) The Bank is authorised to rely and act on the instructions received by the Bank from the Customer via telephone, mobile phone (including SMS or MMS sent from the Customer's mobile phone number according to Clause 3), electronic medium (i.e. online communications including but not limited to instructions received via mobile banking applications), telex (excluding instructions received for Credit Card-i accounts) or other means of telecommunication ("collectively, Telecommunication Instructions") and the Customer agrees that the Bank is authorised to treat any Telecommunication Instructions which the Bank believes came from the Customer (after taking reasonable steps to verify the identity of the person giving or the source of the Telecommunication Instructions) as fully authorised by the Customer and to rely and act on it, and the Bank shall not be liable for any loss suffered by the Customer if such Telecommunication Instructions did not in fact come from the Customer. In spite of what is stated in this Clause, the Bank is not obliged to accept and act upon Telecommunication Instructions regarding:
 - (a) change in account mandate;
 - (b) change of authorised signatories;
 - (c) grant of Power of Attorney to another person or entity;
 - (d) payment instructions;
 - (e) closure of account(s) and transfer of the remaining balance.
- (v) The Customer agrees to indemnify the Bank against all actions, claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses of whatever nature which the Bank may sustain, suffer or incur as a result of the Bank acting on the Telecommunication Instructions which has been reasonably verified by the Bank. This indemnity shall continue in spite of any revocation of authorisation, termination of any service and/or closure of any account.
- (vi) The Bank may at its discretion, introduce further security measures to ensure, as far as possible, that the Telecommunication Instructions have been authorised by the Customer.
- (vii) The Customer may revoke the authorisation in this Clause 30(i) or (ii) and/or Clause 30(iv) by written notice signed according to the account mandate and given to the branch of account.

Indemnity from Customer

31. Where the Customer has undertaken to indemnify or reimburse the Bank, the indemnity and/or reimbursement obligation shall continue in spite of the termination of any service and/or closure of any account.

Legal Expenses

32. The Customer agrees that:
- (i) all legal expenses incurred by the Bank for the recovery of any amount from the Customer under any credit facilities or account shall be borne by the Customer; and
 - (ii) the judgment sum shall carry compensation charges at the rate(s) applicable to the financing facilities or account from the date of judgment to the date of full payment.

Conflict & Order of Priority

33. If there is any inconsistency between these Generic Terms & Conditions, the applicable Specific Terms & Conditions and any account-related/Services-related documentation, the terms and conditions shall prevail in the following order: (please refer to Clause 42 for the definition of "Services")
- (i) Clauses 8, 9, 10, 14 and 42 of these Generic Terms & Conditions;
 - (ii) the account-related/Services-related documentation;
 - (iii) the applicable Specific Terms & Conditions; and
 - (iv) lastly, all the other clauses of these Generic Terms & Conditions not specified in paragraph (i) above.

 - (c) email and electronic message shall be taken to have been received at the time of transmission;
 - (ii) posting on the Bank's website, and shall be taken to have been received immediately after such posting by the Bank.
 - (a) shall be given by the Customer to the Bank in writing by:
 - 1) delivery; or
 - 2) post;to the branch of account, and shall be received on the day of actual receipt by the Bank.

No Waiver & No Assignment

35. (i) No act, omission, failure or delay by the Bank in exercising any power, right or remedy under these Generic Terms & Conditions shall be taken as a waiver by the Bank unless the waiver is confirmed by the Bank in writing. A single or partial exercise by the Bank of any power, right or remedy does not prevent further exercise or the exercise of any other power, right or remedy.
- (ii) The Customer is not allowed to assign or transfer any of the Customer's rights or obligations to any person unless with the Bank's prior written agreement.

Illegality

36. Any term or condition in these Generic Terms & Conditions which is unenforceable shall not affect the remaining terms and conditions.

Dormant Account

37. 2. Advance Link Account-i

To be linked to the Advance Account-i

(Note: This Product has been discontinued. The terms herein apply to existing accountholders only)

This account is based on the Shariah principle of Qard (Loan).

- To open a Advance Link Account-i, the Customer must have:
 - a Advance Account-i; and
 - registered and activated Online Banking.No debit card-i or cheque book will be issued. A maximum of 10 Advance Link Accounts-i can be set up for each Advance Account-i.
- The Customer deposits with the Bank as lender and gives consent to the Bank as borrower to utilise any part of the deposits in the account for Shariah compliant investments or transactions. Returns generated from utilisation of deposits belongs solely to the Bank. The Bank undertakes to return the deposit to the Customer on demand.
- The Customer can personalise the Advance Link Account-i with a name of up to twenty-eight (28) characters which will appear on Online Banking for the Customer's reference only. The Customer agrees that the Advance Link Account-i is not constituted as a trust account and the Bank is not responsible to monitor that the Advance Link Account-i is used for its intended purpose (if it is reflected in the name of the account) and the Customer holds the Bank harmless from any claim and shall indemnify the Bank for any losses and damages arising from any such claim.
- Through Online Banking, the Customer must:
 - select a time period from 6 to 120 months for the Advance Link Account-i ("Selected Tenure"); and
 - set up a monthly Standing Instruction ("SI") authorising the Bank to transfer a fixed sum from the Advance Account-i to the Advance Link Account-i on a specific date every month throughout the tenure.The Customer is only required to set up one SI for each Advance Link Account-i.
- The Customer can at any time through Online Banking:
 - vary the SI amount, provided the minimum SI amount is RM50;
 - vary the Selected Tenure;
 - transfer or deposit any additional amount into the Advance Link Account-i; or
 - transfer or withdraw any amount to the Advance Account-i, provided there is a minimum balance of RM20 in the Advance Link Account-i after the transfer/withdrawal.
- Any Hibah credited to the account was on the bank's sole discretion. It shall not be construed as an indicative Hibah nor give rise to any obligation on the part of HSBC Amanah to provide such Hibah in the future.
- The Customer may not withdraw money from the Advance Link Account-i directly but by transferring the requisite amount to the Advance Account-i through Online Banking and then withdrawing from the Advance Account-i, subject to its terms and conditions.
- Credit balances in the Advance Link Account-i are not available for payment of cheques issued under the linked Advance Account-i.
- The Customer agrees that the Bank will execute the SI every month. There will be no contribution to the Advance Link Account-i if the Bank cannot execute the SI due to insufficient funds in the Advance Account-i.
- If the Bank is unable to execute the SI for three (3) consecutive months, the Advance Link Account-i shall be closed on the day before the next SI is to be effected unless there are sufficient funds in the linked Advance Account-i. On closure of the Advance Link Account-i, the balance in the Advance Link Account-i less any applicable fees shall be transferred to the Advance Account-i.
- The Customer agrees that a Premature Account Closure Fee as stated in the Bank's Tariff and Charges on the Bank's website will be deducted from the Advance Link Account-i if it is prematurely closed prior to the expiration of the Selected Tenure due to:
 - (i) the Bank's inability to execute the SI within 3 months from account opening date in accordance with paragraph (c) above; or
 - (ii) the Customer failing to set up an SI within three (3) months from the date of opening of the Advance Link Account-i; or
 - (iii) the Customer closes the Advance Link Account-i before expiry of the Selected Tenure.

If there are insufficient funds in the Advance Link Account-i, the Customer authorises the Bank to deduct the Premature Account Closure Fee from the linked Advance Account-i or any other credit balance held with the Bank.

I. At the end of the Selected Tenure:

- The Advance Link Account-i will automatically be closed; and
- the credit balance less any fee will be transferred to the linked Advance Account-i.

3. Premier Junior Savers Account-i

This account is based on the Shariah principle of Qard (loan)

- a. The Premier Junior Savers Account-i (“Junior Savers Account-i”) is an exclusive savings account for children of Premier Customers under the age of 18 years old where:
 - a. the Premier Customer (“Parent”) maintains the minimum Premier eligibility criteria (“Eligibility Criteria”); and
 - b. a minimum initial deposit as determined by the Bank is maintained in the Junior Savers Account-i.
- b. The Eligibility Criteria may be updated from time to time and can be viewed at www.hsbcamanah.com.my. The Bank reserves the right to close the Junior Savers Account-i if the Parent fails to maintain the Eligibility Criteria.
- c. The Junior Savers Account-i is an account held on trust by the Parent for the benefit of the Parent’s nominated child (“the Child”),
- d. The Parent deposits with the Bank as lender and gives consent to the Bank as borrower to utilise any part of the deposits in the account for Shariah compliant investments or transactions. Returns generated from utilisation of deposits belongs solely to the Bank. The Bank undertakes to return the deposit to the Parent on demand.
- e. A Parent may open multiple Junior Savers Accounts-i but the Junior Savers Account-i can only be opened for one (1) Child per Parent per account.
- f. The Junior Savers Account-i is not a joint account even though the Bank will maintain records for both the Parent and the Child. The Junior Savers Account-i shall be operated by the Parent, and the Bank shall act on the instructions of the Parent in relation to the account operations and shall not accept instructions from the Child (except for limited ATM and POS as below mentioned).
- g. The Parent may close the Junior Savers Account-i without the Child in attendance prior to the Child attaining the age of 18 years old. Upon the Child attaining the age of 18 years old, the Parent and Child are both required to close and withdraw all funds in the Junior Savers Account-i in person. Subsequently, the Child can choose to open a new Premier Account-i with the Bank in his/her sole name or joint name with the Parent provided the Eligibility Criteria is met.
- h. Upon the Child attaining the age of 12, the Parent may apply for a debit card-i for the Child’s use and to be issued in the Child’s name.
- i. The Parent agrees that the Bank is not responsible to monitor that the Junior Savers Account-i is used for its intended purpose by the Parent and/or the Child and the Parent holds the Bank harmless from any claim and shall indemnify the Bank for any losses and damages arising from any such claim except where losses and damages are directly attributable to the Bank’s negligence or default.
- j. In the event the Parent’s Premier Account(s) is closed for any reason whatsoever, the Junior Savers Account-i will consequently be closed and the balance in the Junior Savers Account-i less any fee will be returned to the Parent as the trustee.
- k. The Parent agrees that the Bank may disclose information on the Junior Savers Account-i to the Child.
- l. A composite statement for the Junior Savers Account(s)-i will be issued to the Parent and a standalone statement will be issued to the Child at such intervals selected by the Parent upon request by the Parent.
- m. Any Hibah credited to the account was on the bank’s sole discretion. It shall not be construed as an indicative Hibah nor give rise to any obligation on the part of HSBC Amanah to provide such Hibah in the future.

- n. If the Junior Savers Account-i is still not closed when the Child has reached the age of 24 years, the Bank has the right to close the Junior Savers Account-i. In such an event, the monies will be transferred to the Parent's active sole Premier Account/-i maintained with the Bank and if there is no such active account, the monies will be forwarded to the Parent as the trustee.
- o. In the event of death of the Parent or the Child, the Bank must be notified immediately. The Bank shall close the Account upon any such death.
- (i) In the event of death of the Child, funds in the Account will be paid to or to the order of the Parent.
- (ii) In the event of death of the Parent, funds in the Account will be paid as follows:
- where the Child has reached the age of majority (18 years of age), to the Child or any authorized representative of the Child;
 - where the Child has not reached the age of majority (below 18 years of age), to the legal guardian of the Child.
- p. The Bank shall be entitled to withhold payment of funds in the Account without liability to give Hibah after account closure.

h. Account statements in hard copy form or electronic format ("E-statement") shall be issued to the Customer on a monthly basis or such other permitted intervals determined by the Bank. The E-statement may be sent to the Customer via electronic mail to the Customer's e-mail address last known to the Bank or through Online Banking if the Customer is a registered user.

i. Overdrawing is not allowed under the account. In the event of an unauthorised overdrawing, the Bank shall be entitled to debit the account or any other account of the Customer with the Bank for the amount overdrawn.

j. The Bank reserves the right to refuse payment of withdrawal instruction or cheque encashment (through issuance of a cheque to a third party) from the Customer's account, to a third party whether authorised or purportedly authorised by the Customer at the branch of account.

k. The Customer agrees that fees and charges stated in the Bank's Tariff and Charges which can be viewed at the Bank's website shall be imposed.

6. Term Deposit-i

This account is based on the Shariah principle of Commodity Murabahah (Commodity Trade with disclosed cost and profit).

- a. A minimum initial deposit amount shall be as determined by the Bank.
- b. Duration of placement is subject to a minimum of 1 month and a maximum of 60 months. Placement by cheque is subject to clearance of the cheque.
- c. On placement, the deposit must be debited from the Customer's savings/current account and information on the deposit will be included in the Customer's account statement. The Customer consents to the Bank utilising any part of the deposit placed for investment purposes before the execution of Commodity Murabahah Transactions.
- d. Commodity Murabahah Transactions
The Customer shall enter into purchase and sale transactions for Shariah compliant commodities ("Commodity Murabahah Transactions") on the next Trading Day.
- e. The Customer agrees that the Bank shall act as an agent of the Customer only for the Commodity Murabahah Transactions, and the agency shall be terminated if the deposit is withdrawn.
- f. The Bank may undertake the role as agent for more than one Customer and will execute the role for each Customer independently.
- g. The Bank as the Customer's agent shall in good faith, perform transactions to:
 - purchase the commodity on cash basis ("Purchase Transactions"); and
 - sell the commodity on deferred payment basis to the Bank ("Sale Transactions") at the Murabahah Sale Price (deposit plus profit) where profit is calculated as follows:

$$\text{Profit} = \text{Deposit principal amount} \times \text{contracted profit rate} \times \text{Number of days in the placement} \div \text{number of days in a calendar year.}$$

Illustration of Profit computation:

Illustration- Profit upon maturity

|------------------|--|
| Principal amount | = RM10,000 |
| Tenure | = 12 months (365 days) |
| Rate | = 3.00% p.a. |
| Profit | = Principal x Rate x Number of days based on full tenure / number of days in a year = RM10,000 x 3.00% x 365/365 = RM300 |

- h. The Bank may sell the commodity to any third party after purchasing the commodity from the Customer in the Sale Transaction.
- i. "Trading Day" refers to a day other than Saturdays and Sundays and on which Bursa Suq Al-Sila (or such other commodities exchange that the Bank may use) is open for trading.
- j. Delivery of Commodity:
 - (a) Any request for physical delivery of the commodity shall be made by providing the Bank a request prior to the Term Deposit-i placement;
 - (b) Arrangement for the physical delivery is to be made directly with the commodity platform provider or commodity trader, subject to the fulfilment of their terms and conditions for such delivery including any arrangements for logistics, insurance / takaful and other applicable costs associated imposed by them that the Customer shall bear; and
 - (c) In the event the Customer decides to take physical delivery of the Commodity, no profit will be paid to the Customer as the Bank is unable to perform the Sale Transaction.
- k. Any brokerage fee or costs involved in the Purchase Transactions shall be paid by the Bank.

- l. The Customer agrees to indemnify the Bank against all actions, claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses of whatever nature which the Bank may sustain, suffer or incur as a result of acting as the Customer's agent in the Commodity Murabahah Transactions or for any breach of the Customer's obligations except in the event of misconduct, negligence or breach of specified terms. This indemnity shall continue in spite of the termination of the Bank's agency.
- m. The Bank shall pay the Customer:
- For placements below 12 months, the deposit and profit on the maturity date of the deposit; and
 - For placements 12 months and above, the deposit on the maturity date and profit at six monthly intervals until the maturity date and if the last period to maturity is less than six months, profit shall be based on the actual remaining number of months to the maturity date.
The Bank may at its discretion, also pay profit at monthly intervals.
- n. The placement advice only serve as a record of transaction and is not required to be presented during withdrawal.
- o. Premature withdrawal of the deposit

If the Customer withdraws the placement before the maturity date, the Customer agrees that the Bank shall be entitled for full rebate ('ibra) on the profit portion payable from the Murabahah Sale Price, where no profit shall be paid by the Bank.

The rebate shall be deducted from the Murabahah Sale Price, where $Rebate = Murabahah\ Sale\ Price - Principal\ or\ Placement\ amount$

|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Murabahah Sale Price | = Principal amount + profit |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|

- p. The Bank may at its discretion pay the Murabahah Selling Price to the Customer at a date before the maturity of the deposit, in which case profit shall be paid in proportion to the number of days the deposit was held. If the maturity date of the Term Deposit-i should fall on a non-business day, the principal and profit shall be credited to the Customer's account on the next business day. The Bank may grant a discretionary Hibah in addition to the agreed sale price.
- q. All deposits shall be automatically renewed for the same period upon maturity date based on the prevailing board profit rate at the time of renewal, unless instructions in writing or via channels made available by the Bank are received by the Bank from the Customer beforehand. Paragraphs (c) to (g) above shall apply to each renewal. The Customer has the right to give and/or to amend any instructions up to the maturity date.
- r. The start date of any renewal shall correspond to the maturity date of the previous cycle.
- s. If the maturity date falls on a non-business day, it will be automatically adjusted to the next business day. However, subsequently, the maturity date of any renewal shall correspond to the numerical day on which the initial Term Deposit-i was placed.

| Second renewal | 6 th March 2024 | 4 th April 2024 | |

- t. The Customer agrees that on the maturity or withdrawal, the deposit and/or profit shall be credited to the same account from which the deposit originated.

Foreign Currency (FCY) Accounts-i

7. FCY Savings Account-i

This account is based on the Shariah principle of Qard (loan) and Bai' al-Sarf (Currency Exchange).

- a. The Customer deposits with the Bank as lender and gives consent to the Bank as borrower to utilise any part of the deposits in the account for Shariah compliant investments or transactions. Returns generated from utilisation of deposits belongs solely to the Bank. The Bank undertakes to deliver the deposit to the Customer on demand.
- b. When a currency conversion/exchange takes place within the account, Bai' al-Sarf rulings apply where the relationship between customer and the bank is buyer and seller of the respective currencies.
- c. A minimum initial deposit as determined by the Bank is required.
- d. Any Hibah credited to the account was on the bank's sole discretion. It shall not be construed as an indicative Hibah nor give rise to any obligation on the part of HSBC Amanah to provide such Hibah in the future.
- e. The Customer must open or have a Ringgit account with the Bank/HSBC Bank to convert:
 - Ringgit to the required foreign currency to be credited to the account (Where the Ringgit account is with the Bank, the Bank is the seller and the Customer is the buyer of the foreign currency); or
 - foreign currency into Ringgit (The Bank is the buyer and the Customer is the seller of the foreign currency);as cash deposit/withdrawal is not allowed, and information relating to this account will be included in the account statement for the said Ringgit account.
- f. For transfer of funds which requires cross currency conversion to be made from foreign currency A to foreign currency B, the Bank is the buyer of foreign currency A and the Customer is the seller of the foreign currency A.
- g. The rate of exchange for any conversion of currency is based on the Bank's prevailing spot rate and any settlement (save for circumstances beyond the Bank's control as described in GTC Clause 29) shall be done on immediate basis.
- h. The Customer acknowledges that the operation of the account is subject to the prevailing Foreign Exchange Policy. For more information on Foreign Exchange Policy and how it impacts the Customer refer to the following link:
<https://www.hsbc.com.my/investments/products/foreign-exchange/bnm-foreign-exchange-policy/>.
- i. The Customer agrees that if the amount deposited exceeds any limit prescribed by the Foreign Exchange Policy, the Bank may debit the account, convert the excess into Ringgit at the Bank's prevailing spot buying rate and credit the Customer's Ringgit account with the Bank.
- j. The Customer acknowledges that the amount deposited cannot be assigned, transferred or charged either by endorsement or otherwise except with the prior written consent of the Bank.
- k. The Bank may impose fees and charges at its discretion and as stipulated in the Bank's Tariff and Charges which can be viewed at the Bank's website.

8. FCY Term Deposit-i

This account is based on the Shariah principle of Commodity Murabahah (Commodity Trade with disclosed cost and profit).

- a. Commodity Murabahah Transactions
The Customer shall enter into purchase and sale transactions for Shariah compliant commodities ("Commodity Murabahah Transactions") to place the deposit.
- b. The Customer must open or have:
 - a Ringgit account to convert Ringgit to the required foreign currency for the placement of the deposit; and

- a savings/current account in the same foreign currency for the withdrawal of the deposit;
 as cash deposit/withdrawal in foreign currency is not allowed, and information relating to this account will be included in the account statement for the said Ringgit account.
- c. The Customer agrees that
- profit shall be paid on maturity of the deposit;

- (b) The Customer’s use and continued use of the Remote Engagement Service constitutes acceptance of this Terms of Use and any amendments made to it from time to time.

2. The use of Zoom

- (a) Zoom enables HSBC Relationship Manager(s) and/or authorized Bank personnel to interact with you using your own desktop/laptop/tablet/mobile devices via video call on invitation basis. Zoom is made available by Zoom Video Communications, a company incorporated in San Jose, California, U.S.
- (b) To be able to connect, you will need a device (desktop/laptop/tablet/mobile) with built in webcam speakers and microphone or an external webcam and audio equipment, for example a headset or headphones with microphone. You will also need an internet connection.
- (c) If you are using desktop/laptop, you may be required to download a browser plug-in, it depends on the internet browser you are using, if this is required, you will see instructions when you join the Zoom video call. If using Zoom via your tablet/mobile device, you will be required to download the “Zoom Workplace” application, which is made available in the application store on your Android or IOS electronic devices.
- (d) You will then receive an email invitation from the Bank sent to your registered email address with the Bank to connect via a video call using Zoom. Please click the link in the email to start.
- (e) The Bank will need to confirm your identity on the video call prior to discussing on any banking product and services or personal information relating to your account with the Bank. The Bank aims to provide you with help and support on our available products and services upon your request.
- (f) Any instruction from you while using Zoom will only be acted on by the Bank upon receipt of complete signed electronic documents received via Live Sign.

3. The use of Live Sign

- (a) Live Sign is a document signing facility provided by Adobe Systems Software Ireland Limited, a company incorporated in Ireland (“Adobe”).
- (b) By signing electronically on the documents or forms sent through Live Sign, you agree that pursuant to section 7 of the Electronic Commerce Act 2006, your execution and acceptance of the electronic documents and/or forms through Live Sign shall be deemed as valid and the documents and/or forms shall not be denied its legal effect, validity or enforceability.
- (c) All complete electronically signed documents received from you shall be taken as your final and conclusive instruction and you are deemed to have consented and given your instruction to the Bank to act upon the same.
- (d) <adobesign@adobesign.com> shall be the email used by the Bank powered by Adobe for the Live Sign service. The Bank will only be communicating via this e-mail address for the Live Sign service.
- (e) The use of electronic signature or e-signature under the Live Sign service shall be subject to the Electronic Commerce Act 2006 as may be amended from time to time or any other law as may be applicable thereto.
- (f) Any instruction documents, where applicable shall be electronically signed with your signature using the options available in Live Sign and such signatures shall be legally binding in the same manner and way as your “wet signature”.

- (g) Where the investment account(s) is in the names of more than one person (with “either to sign” mandate), then the Bank is authorised to accept Instruction from any one account holder. The Instruction shall be binding on all account holders. The liabilities of each of the account holders shall be joint and several.
- (h) You will only use Live Sign to sign the document(s), within 7 calendar days of receiving the document(s)
- (i) The table below describes the cutoff time for products and services supported by the Live Sign facility.

| | | After 12.00pm | Next business day |
| Non-Business Days (Saturday, Sunday and Federal Territory Public Holidays) | | Next business day | |

Expected Confirmation on Processed Instruction

If you initiate an instruction today up to and including 12.00pm, you will receive a copy of the processed documents via your registered email address with the Bank on the same business day.

For instructions received after 12.00pm on the same day, the committed processing time is next business day, however the Bank reserves the right to execute and process the instruction on the same business day. You will be notified via your registered email of the processed documents.

The Bank shall not be obliged to process your instructions and shall not be liable for any loss or damage to you as a result of not effecting your instructions, if on the stipulated date of processing your instruction:

- your designated account does not contain sufficient funds; or
- the execution of your instructions will cause the balance in your designated account to exceed the approved credit limit; or
- your designated account is closed, frozen or inaccessible for any reason.

- (j) During the verification stage, the Bank may take reasonable steps to verify the identity of the person giving any Live Sign instruction(s), however the Bank is not under any duty to do so. Notwithstanding the above, if the Bank feels it is uncertain of the identity of the person(s) giving the Live Sign instruction(s), the Bank reserves the right to decline to act on such instructions and shall have no responsibility whatsoever to you for any loss arising directly or indirectly herein including loss of opportunity (which includes, but is not limited to, any missed chance for investment, or missed chance for investment at peak or favorable rates).

4. Recording

In the course of providing the Remote Engagement Service, the Bank (or any of our agents or nominees) may record and monitor your instructions or communications by tape, video or other means. The Bank has the right to destroy these recordings after such period of time as the Bank considers appropriate. You hereby acknowledge that the Bank has no duty to make such recording(s) available to you for any purposes not connected to the relationship contemplated herein.

5. Privacy

If you provide your personal information to the Bank, the Bank may collect, use, store and disclose your personal information in accordance with HSBC's Notice to Customers Relating to Personal Data Protection Act 2010 which is available at <http://www.hsbc.com.my> and/or <http://www.hsbcamanah.com.my>.

For the purpose of ensuring smooth document transition through Live Sign, the Bank may disclose the contents of the email to our service provider Adobe who is located in Ireland and who has servers located globally such as Australia. HSBC has in place contractual arrangements with Adobe for the protection of personal information.

6. Warranties/Limited liability

- (a) By using the Remote Engagement Service, you hereby warrant to the Bank the following:
- (b) You will only use Zoom and/or Live Sign for the purposes described in these Terms of Use. You will not use or attempt to use Zoom and/or Live Sign to:
 - (i) adversely affect the reputation of HSBC Bank and/or HSBC Amanah;
 - (ii) damage or interfere with Zoom and/or Live Sign data, software, website or information technology systems;
 - (iii) send any offensive, inflammatory, defamatory, fraudulent or otherwise unlawful information; or
 - (iv) cause annoyance or inconvenience to HSBC.
- (c) You will act solely on your own independent analysis, judgment and decisions or upon seeking independent financial or professional advice with respect to the product and services offered or investments made.
- (d) To the extent permitted by law, the Bank excludes all implied representations, conditions and warranties whether statutory or otherwise. The Bank will not be liable to you or any other party for any actions, proceedings, claims, losses or damages suffered by you arising from or connected with your use of Zoom and/or Live Sign or indirect or consequential loss or for loss or corruption of data, loss of revenue or loss of profits, whether in contract, tort or under statute or otherwise arising from or connected with your use of Zoom and/or Live Sign.
- (e) You acknowledge that the Bank can terminate your use of Zoom and/or Live Sign if the Bank reasonably believes that you have breached this Remote Engagement Service Terms of Use.
- (f) You authorise the Bank to execute your Zoom and/or Live Sign instruction(s) given to the Bank in relation to your banking and investment product transactions and services. You acknowledge that in acceding to your instruction(s), the Bank shall not be liable for any losses arising directly or indirectly from such instruction(s).
- (g) You irrevocably and unconditionally agree and undertake to hold the Bank fully indemnified from and against any and all actions, proceedings, claims and demands whatsoever and howsoever occurring, arising, whether directly or indirectly, which may hereinafter be brought against the Bank as a result of the Bank adhering to your request/instruction(s) and from any and all liabilities, damages, losses, costs (on a full indemnity basis) and expenses of whatsoever kind and nature in connection and ancillary therewith. Upon notice of a claim, you hereby authorise the Bank to debit such claimed amounts from any account standing in credit in your name with the Bank. You hereby agree that such debiting is without prejudice to any other rights and remedies of the Bank and shall not be a waiver of any event of default under this arrangement.

7. Restriction

- (a) The Bank may, in its sole discretion, decide not to engage or process any transactions, provide products or services or otherwise facilitate transactions, even where permitted by applicable sanctions laws and regulations, where these activities fall outside of HSBC's risk appetite in accordance to HSBC Sanctions Policy Statement available at <http://www.hsbc.com/our-approach/risk-and-responsibility/financial-crime-risk/financial-crime-risk-policies>. This may result in HSBC having to terminate the remote engagement service made available to you or/and take such other actions as are necessary in accordance with Clause 8 Financial Crime Risk Management Activity of the Generic Terms and Conditions.
- (b) Remote Engagement Service is subjected to the laws and regulations of cross border regulations and should not be construed as a recommendation, distribution, an offer to sell, or a solicitation to buy any securities, in any jurisdiction where such activities would be unlawful under the laws of such jurisdiction.

8. Governing Law

This Remote Engagement Service Terms of Use is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Malaysia. You agree to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Malaysia.
